

ABOUT US.

Microvista GmbH, based in Blankenburg (Harz), is a specialized full-service provider for industrial computed tomography and offers non-destructive testing, measurement and evaluation services for industry.

Get your inspection done: Anywhere. Anytime. Fast.

At a glance

Microvista ensures quality through fast, economical, and automatable CT inspections – even for the serial inspection of large quantities. Using a mobile CT scanner and AI-supported software, the company precisely analyzes components directly at the customer's site.

- Mobile CT testing – ScanExpress container comes directly to the customer
- AI-powered automation – Fast, objective evaluation in minutes instead of hours.
- For SOPs, production start-ups and ongoing series
- Laboratory CT services – Supplementary stationary analyses in Blankenburg

Services

Industry: Industrial computed tomography (CT), non-destructive testing (NDT), and digital quality assurance

Applications: Defect analysis (pores, cavities, inclusions, cracks), assembly and joining inspection (core remnants, chips), target/actual comparison (wall thickness measurement, CAD comparison, reverse engineering).

Target groups: Automotive, additive manufacturing, battery systems, pharmaceutical industry, medical technology, archaeology, foundries

www.microvista.de/en

presse@microvista.de

+49 3944 950-71